

18 to 24 Year Old

Students 18 - 24 Years Old (at the start date of the course, this is the date the course starts and not necessarily the date the student starts)

Student support is available from the following funds and will be means tested on parental household income from all sources, for the full financial year April 2015 to April 2016

Fund	How much?	Assessed on parental income
Further Education Bursary	£75.91	Household income £24,275 or below ( if parental household income is above this threshold then a reduced rate may be paid, or a NIL award made depending on income)
Further Education Bursary	Travel – if you live more than 2 miles from the College Campus. The College uses the First Bus Zone Map and students will normally be assessed for £13.00 per week	Household income £24,275 or below ( if parental household income is above this threshold then a reduced rate may be paid, or a NIL award made depending on income) Please note: Assessment will be made providing the student does not already receive assistance with this from another source e.g. DLA/PIP/Concessionary Bus Pass
Further Education Bursary	If students are living “away from the parental home” they may be assessed for £95.94 per week(Tenancy Agreement for term time address normally required)	Household income £24,275 or below ( if parental household income is above this threshold then a reduced rate may be paid, or a NIL award made depending on income)
Further Education Bursary	Course Materials (paid to the College)	Household income £24,275 or below ( if parental household income is above this threshold then a reduced rate may be paid, or a NIL award made depending on income)

Please note: Funding will be assessed on parental income for the full last financial year even if the student does not live within the parental home.

Some students who are 18-24 years may receive up to £95.94 if they are considered independent from their parents. Below are reasons why a student may be considered independent.

- Both parents are deceased
- You have a child who is dependent on you
- You have supported yourself for three full years (before the start date of the course) through employment or benefits
- You are a Care Leaver ( a letter from the Social Work Department or other official body will be required)
- You are estranged from your parent’s ( a letter from the Social Work Department or other official body will be required)

- You are married/living with a partner before the start date of the course ( we will require your marriage certificate/civil partnership certificate and or council tax bill/tax credit award letter in both names

The above is not an exhaustive list please contact Student Funding for more information

Care Leavers

Students who are Care Leavers or are living in Supported Accommodation should submit a letter from the Social Work Department

*Students who are estranged from their parents

Students who are estranged from their parents must submit a letter from the Social Work Department/Doctor or other official body (contact Student funding Section for more information)

*The meaning of estrangement in this context means a permanent and irrevocable breakdown in the parental/child relationship. A breakdown in family communication is not considered to be estrangement and any award in this situation must take account of parental income.
