

Disclaimer

Glasgow Clyde College will endeavour to deliver courses in accordance with the descriptions set out in this website.

The recruitment timeline for these courses is set by local authority partners and the application process shall remain open until the September weekend of the current academic year. After this time, no applications can be made unless there is an agreement between the school and Glasgow Clyde College.

Glasgow Clyde College reserves the right to make variations to the contents or delivery methods of courses, to discontinue courses and to merge or combine courses if such action is reasonably considered to be necessary by the College Faculties.

The information given in this website is believed correct at the time of publication. Glasgow Clyde College reserves the right, at its discretion, at any time and for any reason, to make changes to the services offered and set out in this website without prior notice including, but not limited to, the following:

- to withdraw the offer of a course which fails to recruit the minimum number required by regulation
- to make changes to syllabuses and courses for reasons including meeting technological or academic developments or employers' requirements particularly in specialist options

Glasgow Clyde College accept applications for this programme from all young people who are still in full time compulsory education regardless of ethnic origin or disability.